

The Costa Connection

M A G A Z I N E

Why Advertise with the Costa Connection Magazine?

The Costa Connection is not just full of adverts, unlike some magazines, people read it and all our articles are connected to the Costa de Sol. Even down to our recipe page, the Cookery Connection only uses ingredients that can be bought here on the coast. From live music to the arts, only local events and people who live or perform here are featured. The lighthearted features are written by writers who live here on the coast and are not just taken off the internet. Other publications have tried and failed to copy our format, so why have they failed? We have professional photographers and writers who live on the coast and understand that we aim to reach not just the residents but also the visitor to the Costa del Sol. In addition we understand the Spanish way of life and show the greatest respect for our hosts.

We concentrate our distribution in the Fuengirola and Mijas Costa area as we find this to be one of the largest populations of English speaking residents and visitors. In addition we do delivery to Coin, Alhaurin, Benalmadena and Marbella but only to the places we know our magazine has been so popular to the point that every issue has been taken. We do not waste our advertiser's money by letting them be binned at the end of the month as they are still left on the shelf, like other publications can be.

Our prices are not the lowest in relation to some publications, but we offer more value and quality for your money.

Our prices are structured so that businesses here on the coast can become long term clients of the Costa Connection reaching the people who they want to have as customers. For the small business we can offer targeted advertising for less than 100 euros per month. In addition the larger companies can have quality publicity in a quality magazine at a price they can afford to repeat all year. If you or your company are interested in knowing more about our many offers, including editorial profiles at prices that you can afford, please contact us today or you may have just missed another customer.

Telephone 616 061 553 or 695 155 085 to discuss your needs without obligation and see what the Costa Connection can offer you.

Celebrity Connection - Cookery Connection - Fashion Connection - Cosmic Connection - Classic Connection - Culture Connection

